

The Inconvenient Indian by Thomas King
Book Discussion Announcement

The AM SSND Dismantling Racism Committee invites you to a monthly book study of The Inconvenient Indian by Thomas King, a Cherokee with Indigenous, American, and Canadian citizenship.

Dates: Thursdays, at 10:00 am or 7:00 pm, on January 25, February 22, March 21, April 25, and May 23, 2024.

Facilitators: Sisters Celeste Reinhart and Barbara Paleczny

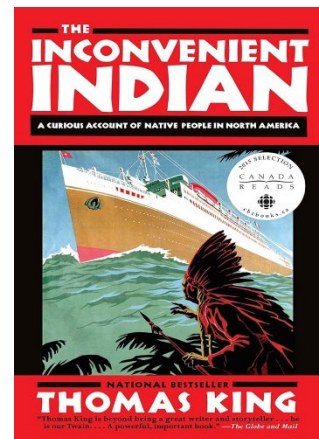

Registration: Please register by emailing Sister Sharon Wall, swall@amssnd.org and write your choice of participation time in the subject line of the email. Registrations are due by January 23.

Be sure to CLICK HERE to view a brief video of our 100-year-old Sister Marie Taylor sharing her good memories of reading the book three years ago.

If you plan to participate in the January 25th session:

1. Obtain the book, possibly at thriftbooks.com, thriftbooks.ca or goodreads.com
2. Read the Prologue and Chapter One:
 - a) What points in the Prologue are particularly significant for us?
 - b) What meaningful conclusions does King draw in Chapter One?
 - c) We will cover Chapter Two on January 25th and offer a summary. If you have time to read it, consider how Indigenous are portrayed in the media.

Questions will be provided each month to focus our reading and guide our discussions.
